NEWS RELEASE

MSL LEGAL EXPENSES LIMITED EXPANDS COMMERCIAL DIVISION WITH SENIOR APPOINTMENTS

MSL Legal Expenses Limited, one of the UK's largest independent legal expenses providers, has strengthened its sales and commercial divisions by making three senior appointments.

Richard Bewes joins MSL as Head of Sales and will be responsible for creating and delivering the sales strategy, increasing market share and developing new markets.

Prior to joining MSL, Richard spent 15 years with Marsh and Aon as an Associate Director and Director of Client Services and Sales respectively.

MSL has also strengthened its claims division with the appointment of Jody Litt, who joins as Claims Manager. Jody's primary aim will be to lead the claims department in effectively managing motor claims on behalf of MSL's broker clients.

Jody was previously at Antony Hodari & Co Solicitors in Manchester as Small Claims and Support Services Manager and before this held various claims roles at Esure Insurance and Direct Line.

Grahame Davies joins as Legal Services Manager and will manage the non-motor claims, BTE and ATE technical legal expenses insurance as well as providing technical claims assistance to the Group. Grahame will also manage the insurance underwriting department.

Prior to MSL, Grahame worked for Russell Jones and Walker Solicitors in Manchester as LEI Manager and before that for The AA where he spent 17 years in the Legal Services department.

Nick Garner , Managing Director at MSL comments: "We are delighted to welcome Richard, Grahame and Jody to the MSL team. We have aggressive growth plans for 2011 and aim to significantly strengthen our market presence. With these senior appointments, we are confident that we can develop our sales strategy and look to make the claims service we provide to our clients more efficient."
